"The Republican party is the ship, all else the sea for the Negro," said Frederick Douglass forty years ago. What was true then is true now. Stick to the party, boys.

Do you want stock in the Kaw Valley Truck Gardening Co., incorporated and bonded? Call E. A. Robinson, president. Bell, East 754.

The City Hall complains that the mechanism of a municipal car was strained while being used in chasing a feeling negro. We have not learned how it affected the latter.

Even when grand opera is rendered in Convention Hall, race prejudice designs seats for negroes one-half a block from the stage and two blocks from the heating plant.

In the recent marine disaster off the coast of Virginia not even the most rabid press reports were able to cast discredit upon the conduct of the Negro members of the crew. Survivors quickly refuted all such aspersions and praised the self-sacrifice and courage of the black men on board.

Now that wildcats and wolves are prowling the streets of Kansas City, it would be well even for the tough "chickens" to stay off the streets at night unless attended by some one who knows how to handle these vicious animals.

Grand Secretary Geo. W. K. Love and Special Deputies E. G. Lacy and P. L. Pratt paid a special visit by order of the Grand Master, to Capitol City Lodge No. 9, A. F. & A. M., Jefferson City, Mo., Friday, February 6th, and on Saturday, February 7th, they organized a new Masonic Lodge of 17 members at Tibbets, to be known as Tioetts Lodge U. D. with Jas. Ferguson, W. M.; Guy Black, S. W., and E. Cave, J. W. The organization of this lodge is due to the splendid work of Rev. A. J. Jackson, who also is a member of this new lodge by Dinit. One thousand new Masons this Masonic year is the slogan of the Grand Master. When in Jefferson City they were regally entertained by President H. F. Allen and Bro. G. W. Dupee and A. L. Thomas.

How easy it is for the average negro to find some excuse for not patronizing race enterprises. How different he is from other races all around us. It is our lack of race pride that keeps us back and makes us an unimportant factor in public consideration. The prejudice of other races toward us would prove a small matter if we would only support each other. If we were known as a self-supporting, self-respecting people we should never feel class discrimination. We should be sought after instead of seeking. There are many of us who lay claim to great intelligence and enterprise, yet who make an open practice of antagonizing our own brethren in their efforts to rise and go forward. This is the one great obstacle in our way and we shall never be a people until it is removed by our own hands.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of our wife and saintly mother Mary Kennedy, who departed this life February 11, 1912, in the fullness of religious faith: Softly breathe her name to us,

Ah, we loved her so.
Gentle let your tribute be;
None may better know
Her true worth than we who weep
O'er her as she lies asleep—
Soft asleep.

Safe above the water's swirl,
She has crossed the bar;
Earth has lost a precious pearl,
Heaven has gained a star.
That shall ever sing and shine
Till it quells this grief of ours
For our love.

HOW'S YOUR FEET?

I am not asking much, only that each man, woman and child who expects to buy a pair of shoes in the next sixty days give me a chance to furnish the goods. If this be done, I assure you that you will soon see an enterprise spring up in your midst of which you shall be justly proud and your sons and daughters will have an opportunity to turn their attention to a new line of work calculated to give them an honest living and the colored people a stronger hold upon the commercial phase of our city life. If the colored people exercised themselves half as much in the business world as they do in the world of polite society, every other nationality would be compelled to leave Eighteenth street in ten days.

I believe, if I am willing to go to the trouble to deliver you the goods, you might at least suffer it to be so once a year at least. Now I realize that some wear the Clapp shoe, many the Hanan, and such shoes are handled by exclusive agents; but remember, I have the call on you even at that. You can't wear my good Dittman shoe, neither can your son stand behind Mr. Holland's nor Messrs. Ferguson and Davis' counter and ring up the coin. However, no man can afford to dishonor his feet a little to promote the welfare of his son.—G. A. Page, 1507 East Eighteenth street.—Adv.

Betty & Sam's Little Corner

THEY SAY

—That if you want to be a high flier go up in an airship.

—That the only exercise some people get is throwing bouquets at themselves.

—That you should never forget that your wife's mother is the same to her as yours is to you.

—That if you want to know how time flies borrow fifty dollars to be paid back in thirty days, and see.

—That if you don't advertise nobody will know you're doing business, and it won't be long before you'll not know it yourself.

—That if you want to join the Pneumonia squad, wear one of those low-necked, lace-trimmed dresses and you'll soon be in it.

—That the reason why that wild wolf that was killed by a policeman on a prominent street the other day was coming down town, was because he had heard of those juicy "chicken s" on Eighteenth street.

—That a "cullud" man jumped from a ten-story building yesterday and as he passed the eighth story somebody yelled "Chicken"—he stopped falling, went back up, took the elevator down to the eighth floor and yelled to the crowd that had gathered at the window to gaze upon his lifeless form. "Whose dat said Chicken in dis crowd?" Next!

The Negro Business League held an interesting and largely attended meeting at their rooms, 1803 East 18th street, last Tuesday night. Dr. M. H. Lambright, vice president, presided in the absence of President Weaver, and introduced Dr. H. T. Kealing, president of Western University, who delivered a masterly address on "Negro Needs in Business." At the close he was extended a rising vote of thanks by the members of the league. A delightful musical program was rendered by the Anderson family, late of London, Eng., and the league adjourned to meet next Tuesday night, when they are to be addressed by two prominent speakers. The public is invited.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

H. O. Cook, Edw. Ross and R. B. DeFranzwill represent the Paseo Department of the Y. M. C. A. at the Missouri State Y. M. C. A. convention to be held in Sedalia, February 13-15. All departments of the Kansas City Y. M. C. A. will send delegates.

"The University of Faith" is the subject of Rev. G. L. Prince's talk to the Y. M. C. A. Sunday, February 12, at 3 p. m. Rev. Prince is pastor of the Metropolitan Baptist church of Kansas City, Kas. All men are welcome at these inspirational talks on Sunday afternoon.

It is not unusual for the Y. M. C. A. to have a double-header meeting on Sunday afternoon, but as last Sunday (February 8) was an anniversary Sunday, it seemed fitting, although not expected, that three distinct stages of the Association's life should be presented. Dr. J. B. Silcox, in his own inimitable style, told the men of the ever present duty of the Association and Church members. He showed conclusively that the most important and profitable thing in a Christian's life is the leading of others to accept Christ and to live the Christian life.

Mr. Edw. Ross gave a vivid portrayal of the early struggles of the Association. With Prof. A. J. Starnes, two or three preliminary conferences on the advisability of organizing a Y. M. C. A. as early as October, 1900, were held at the home of W. Frederick Fairfax. Mr. Starnes was rooming there at this time. Then meetings for the actual study of Association methods were held in the home of Mrs. Lucinda Day, and afterwards at the home of Chas. Monroe. The first reading rooms were on 12th street, then on 18th street, where they are still located. During this entire time Mr. Ross has given liberally of his time, energy and money. All that heard his recital of the many sacrifices that were necessary on the part of himself and a few others to keep the organization alive in its infancy, were impressed with the faith and insight of the founders.

After this interesting talk on the past, N. C. Crews told of a letter he received that forecasted the future place of the Association in the life of the young men of Kansas City. A young man, now in Chicago, formerly of this city, had written to subscribe for the Kansas City Sun, that he might keep in touch with the Association. In this letter he told how living in the Chicago Association building had changed the whole trend of his life. Before he became connected with the Association he spent his leisure time when in off of his run in the saloons, pool halls and cabarets, spending his money lavishly. Now he receives all the recreation and enjoyment he wishes in the Y. M. C. A. social rooms, gymnasium, bath and parlor. It indeed was a well rounded out meeting, showing the past struggles, the present duty and the future usefulness of the Young Men's Christian Association in great Kansas City.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

"I am come that they might have life and that they might have it more abundantly." John 10-10. National Motto Y. W. C. A.

Miss Pearl K. Henderson was the interesting and able speaker at our Vesper services last Sunday. Miss Henderson spoke on "Women of Ancient and Modern Times." We had a large and enthusiastic audience, which will be glad to hear Miss Henderson again. The Vesper service is held from 3:00 to 4:00 o'clock each Sunday. Prominent among the auditors last Sunday was the Rev. Ernest A. Brown of Newton, Kas., pastor of the C. M. E. church, who made interesting closing remarks.

The fast annual meeting of the Yates Branch of the Young Women's Christian Association will be held at the Association building on 5th and State avenue on the Kansas side, Monday, March 2, at 8:00 p. m. Every active member (any woman who has paid us $1.00 for dues and who is a member of some Evangelical church) is entitled to vote and is urged to be present. Twenty-five women are to be elected to the Board of Management for the ensuing year. We are anxious for more workers from the different churches, including those already represented. The woman or girl who pays her membership fee of $1.00 and joins the Y. W. C. A. today has the same rights and privileges as those who joined last year. What we want is the woman or girl who will be interested in some other woman, one who has the capacity to love, and one who will give service. The Y. W. C. A. stands ready to serve or help our churches. It is non-sectarian and encourages each woman and girl to attend their own church, and especially the holy communion service. We hold no meeting that conflicts with the regular church services. We aim to show always that the purpose of the Y. W. C. A. is to bring young women to Christ.
